

THE PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY OF CHAPLAINS, INC.

EXPLANATION OF MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Active: Entitles the member to full privileges, including voting and access to all areas within the Pennsylvania Society of Chaplains website.

Emeritus: Takes the place of “Retired.” Same privileges as “Active” membership above.

Student: Engaged in a course of study leading to future work in the field. Full access to all areas of the website but no voting privileges.

Friends of the Society: New category for those who meet all criteria of full membership but who do not wish to keep current with their annual dues, yet desire correspondence with the Society. No voting privileges and not entitled to full access to all areas within the website. Will be kept informed of events. May become active at any time.

As dues paying members, the first three categories are entitled to member prices for conferences, but those registered as Friends must pay the non-member price.

If there are any questions, please call or e-mail the Membership Chairperson, Faith Williams. Her contact information is listed below.
